Cabaret keeps toes tapping

Good summer fun has been enjoyed at the Holiday Inn in Venice where Forrest Richards and Jeff Sargent's cabaret show, "That's Entertainment — The Music of the Movies," has kept toes tapping and hands clapping.

The show, running through Aug. 24 on Tuesdays and Fridays, also features Don Sturrock as music director and arranger. What you might not know is that in Don's extensive career, he conducted and played for country music legend Eddy Arnold for 17 years. Last year, Don was in Venice, Italy, with the Venice Opera, La Fenice, providing orchestrations for its production of Gershwin's "Lady Be Good." Audiences remember Forrest this past season as Nellie Forbush and Jeff as Lt. Joe Cable in "South Pacific" at the Sarasota Golden Apple.

Leaving the local scene . . .

. . . champagne and a slow dance, they were whisked by limo to the resort's Sands Pointe restaurant where they dined and watched the sun set over the Gulf.

Joe wanted the evening to capture some of the romance of their wedding.

The rest of you guys might want to take a hint.

Among the art crowd

Dhalyn Adams-Irwin and Teddy Irwin have moved from Malibu to Winter Park — closer to home, say Dhalyn's delighted mom and dad, Mike and Sandee Adams. An international modeling pro, Dhalyn is pursuing her passion for art. Her paintings were displayed at Robb and Stuckey's "Artist in the Atrium" event for 10 days last month. . . . New artist in town is Minnesota native Kristin Gustafson who's currently showing her work at the Mango Tree Artworks in Towles Court. . .

Emily Molles just had an exhibit of her paintings at East Galleries in NYC in their Master of Arts Thesis exhibition. Emily's studio gallery is located on Main Street in Sarasota. . . Jolene
